... = data not available; | = marks break in series; - = magnitude equals zero; -0.0 or 0 = magnitude is less than half of unit employed; * = provisional, preliminary, estimate, budget figure; $ = United States dollars; cif = cost, insurance, and freight; fob = free on board; GDP = gross domestic product; GNI = gross national income; km<sup>2</sup> = square kilometer; kWh = kilowatt-hour; NPISHs = nonprofit institutions serving households; Q = quarter.

- a Data are intercensal estimates based on the 1999 and 2011 population censuses. For 2000–2010, data are population projections based on annual population growth rates derived from data on births, deaths, and migration. For 2019, data are based on the average annual growth rate for 2011–2018.
- b The total number of persons in the labor force does not add up to the total number of persons employed and unemployed because the estimates for total employment and its breakdown by economic activity have been revised using an updated version of the International Standard Industrial Classification Revision 4, including exclusion of shore-based fish processing and vessel support services.
- c Estimates for total employment and its breakdown by economic activity have been revised due to shift to an updated version of the International Standard Industrial Classification Revision 4, which accounts for substantial changes in economic structure.
- d Excludes shore-based fish processing and vessel support services.
- e Includes employment from professional, technical, administrative services, education, health, arts, recreation, and Kwajelein base. Government workers, which are included under “Public Administration”, are not included under education and health. Kwajelein base is US Army based in Kwajelein Atoll where employment for RMI citizens is also generated.
- f Estimates have been revised due to enhancements in the national accounts compilation methodology including change in base year, shift to the International Standard Industrial Classification Revision 4, and data updates.
