- a For 2009, the population figure is based on the 2009 Mini-Population Census and 2009 Agricultural Census of Niue. For 2012–2016, refers to residential population only and is based on the Vital Statistics Analytical Report 2012–2016. For 2017–2020, figures are estimates by Asian Development Bank (ADB) staff using residential population and resident overseas data from the June release of the Niue Vital Statistics reports. For 2019, residential population data are based on the December release of the 2019 Niue Vital Statistics report, while the resident overseas data are based on the June release of the same report.
- b For 2006, includes electricity, gas, steam, and air-conditioning supply; water supply; sewerage, waste management, and remediation activities; and construction.
- c For 2006, included in mining and quarrying.
- d For 2006, accommodation and food service activities are included in wholesale and retail trade; repair of motor vehicles and motorcycles.
- e For 2001 and 2006, information and communication is included in transportation and storage.
- f For 2001, includes public administration; education; health; social welfare; other nonprofit services; and others not stated. For 2006, includes public administration; education; health; and community, social, and personal services. For 2011 and 2017, includes professional, scientific, and technical activities; administrative and support service activities; education; human health and social work activities; arts, entertainment, and recreation; other service activities; and activities of households as employers; undifferentiated goods- and services-producing activities of households for own use.
- g Unemployment rates were estimated by ADB staff using unemployed data and total labor force data.
- h For 2009–2018, a new methodology was used.
- i For 2000–2008, loss of additivity is due to unavailability of data for imputed bank service charges and product taxes. For 2019, estimate was derived by Asian Development Bank staff using the average annual growth rates from 2010 to 2018.
